

HOW TO DO BUSINESS WITH GATEWAY AIRPORT

WHAT DOES PMGAA BUY?

PMGAA engages in a wide variety of activities while providing a safe and secure environment for its tenants and customers. PMGAA operations include:

- Administration
- Airport Operations and Maintenance
- Gateway Aviation Services
- Business Development and Property Management

Commodities, equipment, and services associated with these operations may include:

- Safety supplies
- Engineering and construction
- Office supplies
- Vehicles
- Janitorial / custodial
- Pest control
- Landscaping
- Fuel
- Uniforms
- Heavy equipment
- Legal
- Information technology
- And other services

PMGAA buys just about everything. So if you sell a commodity or service that you think is needed by PMGAA, and your prices and services are high quality and competitive, then PMGAA is interested in hearing from you.

PURCHASES UNDER $5,000

For purchases under $5,000, airport staff obtain at least one quote, where that price is fair and reasonable. Purchases may be made using credit card or purchase order.

PURCHASES BETWEEN $5,000 AND $50,000

The procurement department along with airport staff conducts purchases between $5,000 and $50,000. The department will obtain at least three quotes or proposals for the same or substantially similar items or services. Procurement reviews and approves a purchase order.

PURCHASES IN EXCESS OF $50,000

A public bid by procurement is generally required for purchases over $50,000. Notice is emailed to those registered with PMGAA, listed on PMGAA's website, and published in the Arizona Business Gazette. Solicitations can be downloaded free of charge from the procurement page at gatewayairport.com. Construction bid notices are posted on the website, however, full bid packages may have to be purchased through a printing firm.

COOPERATIVE PURCHASING

PMGAA participates in many cooperative purchase agreements, including the State of Arizona and National Cooperative Purchasing Alliance, as well as other political subdivisions with cooperative language in their bids.

PMGAA is also a member of the Strategic Alliance for Volume Expenditures (SAVE), which includes local counties, cities, and school districts. Often, contracts awarded by a SAVE member can be used by other members.

GIFTS AND GRATUITIES

Thank you for your kind thoughts, but under NO circumstances is any PMGAA employee able to accept, directly, or indirectly, gifts or other items of value from persons doing business or seeking to do business with PMGAA.

HOW DO I INTRODUCE MYSELF?
